3B Examination

Everyone at school is as busy as a bee preparing for exams, Children's Day, the school concert, Graduations, enrolments for the new school year, and Study Tour. More detailed information is included below.

Swimming

As you are aware swimming began with testing sessions before the English exams, and will continue as soon as the exams are over. Student swim twice a week as this is part of the PE program. Those students with medical issues will remain at school supervised by a classroom teacher.

Exams

The Vietnamese exams were held this month and some sessions were observed by representatives from MOET. The teachers will be preparing the Vietnamese reports at the beginning of June. The English exams commence on 30 May and finish on 7 June. Reports will be prepared soon after this date.

Both reports will be distributed to parents in the last week of school.

5B Graduation

A swimming session of 3C

Academic Awards

At the school concert one child from each class will be presented with a trophy for being the highest Academic Achiever. After the concert there will be a special assembly at school to present a certificate to the other high achievers in Years 3-5. The Honour Roll certificate will go to the students who achieve a score of 86% or higher.

Year 5 Graduation

Mr Nai and the Vietnamese teachers are planning to hold the Year 5 Graduation on Wednesday 22 June. Parents will be invited to attend this special event.

School Concert

Our school concert will again be held at the NCC in Tu Liem on Saturday 18 June. Parents are asked to inform teachers as soon as possible if students will be absent for this special event.

Tickets will be available at school closer to the event, for any additional family members who would like to attend.

All children will attend a rehearsal on Wednesday 8 June.

Last week of School

There will be many activities and events in the last weeks of school. Student Council are arranging one last fun event as they try to reach their target to support Operation Smile. There will be a ceremony to present representatives of Operation Smile with the fruits of their labour. Also children will receive Report card (s), a concert CD, and a school Year Book.

Concert Reminder

The school concert will be held at the NCC at 1.30 – 3:30pm 18 June.
